

Where to Shop

In-Person, at a Store:

Now that Toe The Line in Buffalo Grove has closed, the next closest store we recommend is:

Allegro Dance Boutique

104 S Cook St

Barrington, IL 60010

847-277-1009

The staff at Allegro is helpful and well-trained in fitting shoes. It is a one-stop shop for your dance needs. They have a list of the shoes that we require, with an understanding of which level of dancer needs which type of shoe.

Online:

When shopping online, you are taking the risk of having to guess at the fit and size. If you go this route, please have one of our teachers look at the fit of the shoe before your dancer wears it in class so that you can return it if it is not right or if the style is incorrect.

Please BEWARE of bad quality brands on Amazon. If you are going to buy shoes from Amazon, please stick to the recommendations on the Amazon page, in the following lists. Many off-brands that are low quality will fall apart and are not properly made to support your dancer's feet.

Acro & Hip Hop Shoe Requirements

Acro shoes should be the Danshuz brand, per Ms. Kate's suggestion. If your shoes from last year still fit, keep those. If you need a new size, order at the link below:

Danshuz Leather Gymnastic Shoe

We are researching other possible in-person buying options, but at this moment, this online store is what we've found.

Hip Hop Shoes

Dancers may wear any type of NEW, CLEAN black sneaker of their choice for hip hop. Sole can be white or black.
